

PICTURE FROM THE PAST

Twenty-seven students at Bangor High School were recognized for their election to the National Honor Society at an assembly in May 1959. They are (front row, from left) Regina D. Crook, Katherine L. Mason, Marilyn A. Stern, Elizabeth D. Demmons, Louis W. Demaso and James A. Vanidestine, all seniors; (second row) Rosalie A. McDermott, Johanna C. Hunt, Mary Lee Grant, Elizabeth M. Gallison, David M. Parker, Robert R. Richardson and John R. Feeley, also seniors; (third row) Gloria D. Smith, Joyce M. Lundgren, Mary E. Carlisle, Carolyn G. Allen, L. Russell Murphy, Raymond J. Dauphinee, seniors; (fourth row) Nancy J. Connors, Mameve G. Stern, Clifford B. Larlee, Daniel A. Smith, Robert E. Foss, Betsey Brewster, JoAnn Peakes and W. Michael Robson, all juniors. Also named was Karen W. Stevens of the junior class. (Bangor Daily News File Photo by Carroll Hall) (Picture from the Past sponsored by Black Bear Medical)