

Robert I. Lamson

May 15, 1944 - January 29, 2018

HARTLAND - Bob was unexpectedly taken home to be with the Lord after shopping at his favorite store. He was born to Carroll and Francis Bragg Lamson. He attended Stearns High School in Millinocket, Maine. He served in the Army from October 1967 to August 1972. After leaving the Army Bob drove 18 wheelers most of his adult life until 2013 when he started a land maintenance business. He loved driving truck and enjoyed taking his wife with him during the summers. Last summer was the best, they bought a camper and traveled to South Carolina to visit some dear friends, went to Dollywood and saw some shows, did a lot of camping at local campgrounds then finally going to the Nascar races in New Hampshire.

He was predeceased by his father Carroll and mother Francis, many aunts, uncles and grandparents and brother-in-law Roland Ryder.

Bob is survived by his wife Deborah. Three daughters: Carol Wilber and her husband Bob, Cheryl and Amy. He also has a very special stepson Jared, also his two sisters: Judith Ryder and Rebecca Dumont and husband Wilford. Four brothers: Douglas and wife Rose, Stephen, Paul and wife Carol, and James and wife Nancy. He is Papa to three grandchildren: Colby, Dustin and Emily Wilber. He also has several nieces and nephews. Bob had many friends but will be mostly missed by his best bud, Gerard.

Funeral service will be at St. Albans Union Church, Feb. 11th at 4:00 pm in St. Albans, ME. Graveside service will be at Mt. Hope Cemetery in the spring. In lieu of flowers people may give to the St. Albans Union Church children ministries.

Published on February 5, 2018